From an official statement: PA Soft version 1.4.5: PA Soft Software is a program that allows you to easily connect an iPhone, iPod, iPad or iPod touch and use it as a data connection for your cell phone, laptop, or other USB connected devices. NOTE: The PA Soft Software has been designed to only function with the following items (with the exception of the iPod nano): If you wish to connect your iPhone, iPod touch or iPad to your laptop, PC or another phone via USB then you have to make the correct changes to the Windows registry. You can do this before or after you install PA Soft, but you'll need to decide which device the PC will be connected to as USB ports are typically not always located at the back of the machine. Step 1: Download and Install PA Soft To use the download you will need to make sure that you have PA Soft 2002 / 2003 / 2005 / 2007 / 2010 available. The easiest way to do this is to download the program from these web sites: If you have the correct version of PA Soft then simply double click the file you downloaded to install. If the download is in a.zip or.rar file then simply unzip or unrar and double click the PA Soft icon in the folder. If it has been damaged or the version you downloaded is corrupt then read the FAQ below and double click the autoinstall.exe file. The PA Soft 22 Full Version from the Pankaj article works fine and is the best way to install PA Soft as it will create and repair the registry for you at setup. You may notice that the toolbar for PA Soft 2002 has a button to Upgrade to PA Soft 2005. This should work without any problems but the interface may be a little different from the standard PA Soft 2000 and you may need to do some button pressing to continue. For PA Soft 2002 you will need a.PASoft2002.INI file. Simply rename the.INI file if it has a different name. For PA Soft 2005 you will need a.pasoft2005.INI file. Also some bugs have been fixed that were introduced in PA Soft 2005. PA Soft 2007 has been discontinued and so that version of the software has been retired. The following list of workarounds should
