Southland Icons Description: The best of Southland Icons collection to make your windows look more cool and great! Johnny Manziel's 10 Best Games of 2013 It's been a turbulent two years for Johnny Manziel, from the early struggles of his freshman year to the highs and lows of his Heisman season. We've seen some of the best and worst of the Texan. But even in his lowest points, there was always something special about Johnny Football. Manziel is the youngest player in the country and had the largest social media following in college football. And while he may not be the most talented player, he's certainly the most charismatic. Manziel has been a talent from Day 1. He had a long list of accolades before the season even began. He was the first freshman to win the Heisman Trophy and the first freshman to win the Maxwell Award (awarded to the best player in college football). He led Texas A&M to a record breaking 12-1 season. With Manziel and the Aggies, expectations were high right from the start. He had all the accolades in the world, plus a Heisman speech that would go viral in the process. But people can never really predict the future and Johnny Football has been a roller coaster since he walked on campus. We'll go through his top 10 games, including some that weren't expected to be so great. Accreditation It is the policy of the Midland University Alumni Association to have a web page that meets the requirements of accreditation by the Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Midland University, Midland, TX What is CHEA? The Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) is a national accrediting agency that is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. It accredits institutions and programs of study to determine if

It's about one thing, and one thing only: comparing Donald Trump to Hitler. You might be surprised at how often that's the response to Trump's latest callous statement about a congressman's family. Just ask Reddit user trollOverkill, who shared a link to an article describing Trump's latest monologue. Here's what he wrote: Donald Trump has gone full Hitler. Last night he addressed the nation and said the following: Mueller has been very controlled and very political. We have all seen the horrible things they have done, including the lie that the President did not really fight back against the fake news media. They have zero credibility, and they have gone totally off the rails. They have gone off the rails for a long time. They lied about President Obama having wiretapped him in Trump Tower. They lied about the Trump Campaign colluding with Russia. They lied about the President having never really released his tax returns. They lied about how dishonest the media is. They lied about how the so-called Russian Collusion was a total fabrication. They have lied about anything and everything. It is incredible how dishonest they are. He then added this note: "I feel sorry for my relatives who still support him." That comment went viral, to the point where Reddit user trollOverkill actually got more than 500 comments on the original post. That's twice as many as Trump said about Obama's wiretapping of Trump Tower in a tweet on Saturday. Here's the Reddit thread. It's not all Trump is
