Avinash Upadhyay & Kakoli Upadhyay & Nirmalendu Nath Singh (Sathyan). More about the event and links to the first photo reports on social networks: In order to tell about our beloved pupils and convey love and warmth to parents, we decided to organize a dance festival Besak Dance Festival and announce a photo contest "Sketches about children". We are sure that every child should have the opportunity to feel like a part of a large team, and therefore we have a whole festival. As always, the competition will be held in two stages - a creative competition and a face-to-face round. We want to hold the first stage in the form of a thematic competition in order to test the technology. To do this, we will invite some of our friends and acquaintances to participate in the lesson and write to us about it in the comments. Each participant can draw their first photo with the children. To participate in the creative competition, you must prepare a photo and scan it. All photos will be published on the Internet, and as a reward, our friends and acquaintances can win various prizes, for example, participate in a free master class in hip hop and r&b dancing. Thus, each contestant will have the opportunity to receive both a reward and experience that may be useful to him in later life. Job requirements: The theme of the photo should be related to children and their dance class. The photo should show that the children are a single whole. Photos must be taken in a professional studio. The work must be published before August 1 inclusive. (Approximate date of announcement of the competition) The prize draw will take place on September 29 at 23:59 using a random number generator. Entries are accepted until August 31 inclusive. (The audience of the competition is everyone who is interested in dancing and wants to learn more about it) Accepted: photos of children taken in class, in the studio and outside of class, dance shots, etc. At the time of accepting entries, you must post a photo on your Facebook page.
