May 25, 2013 Now available for iPhones, ScoreCloud for iOS is an easy-to-use tool for creating your own sheet music. It lets you create and print music for guitar, piano, and more! While many other apps allow you to fill in the parts for a song, ScoreCloud lets you record your own rendition! You can then save your recording and use your own version of the song as your personal sheet music. Simply place one hand over one fret, the other over another, and you have the basic arrangement down. You can pick a sound to accompany it, or even add your own harmonies! There's a wide selection of tutorials, examples, and videos to help get you started. You can even view scores others have created, learn notation, print them, and download them to your iOS device. All of this makes ScoreCloud a great tool for aspiring musicians. And the best part of all? The app is completely free. Start recording and creating today! ScoreCloud for iOS June 13, 2017.
