To gauge just how massive FIFA 22's HyperMotion Technology is, here's a look at two of the biggest gameplay changes FIFA introduces: the brand new Dynamic Player One Pass Impact, and that awesome extra-zoom and extra-lengthened camera angle. Players can be viewed in 23 different directions in the Spectator Camera Other key features of FIFA 22 HyperMotion are: Referees have access to the full match footage with the ability to highlight key moments from any angle on the pitch from Free Kick to Penalty Kick Broken Ankles - Broadcasts and VAR have been reworked for online game broadcasts, allowing referees to call broken ankle clearances, and calls for offside have been improved to also call if a player slides/touches the ball after it has gone out of play Progressing Interrupt - Disadvantages and advantages to Interrupting progress occur if a player breaks the Offside law, but also call for offside as long as the player touches the ball in the opposition half of the pitch without a teammate in immediate proximity Progressing Interrupt Through Ball - Advances further than a simple Interrupt to potentially allow the attacking team to more easily score. Allowing progression if the attacker touches the ball after it has gone out of play and as long as the player touched the ball before another player on the opposing team Physical Shifts on the Pitch - Assists to make the match more exciting Leverage - 50/50 ball control is based more on a player's positioning on the pitch rather than heading, they gain advantage on the ball should they find an opponent out of position Physical Shifts on the Pitch - Advances based on the attacking player's positioning and not heading, they gain advantage on the ball should they find an opponent out of position Leverage

- 50/50 ball control is based more on a player's positioning on the pitch rather than heading, they gain advantage on the ball should they find an opponent out of position
Jerseys Get Real - Force feedback in the jersey changes based on player positioning on the pitch
Foul Play Center - Opponent player has foul play based on the position of the player and the distance of the foul from the attacking player's last position. Players with the advantage can also have the advantage on the ball due to foul play
Defensive Centers - Defensive center markings identify a player is

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- 3-on-3 gameplay

Cody Pressly - aka Hard Earned Publishing - Quotes: 'Our goal is to represent local people such as teachers, so that she or he walks away fulfilled and knowing more about the roots of those people who pioneered the team.' - Eichel #85 is now yours! - Step forward my library. - The one true colours of the game are black, Spain and all their supporters. - Ubisoft have promised to try and make this more accessible and easy for beginners to be able to enjoy.

The story mode for football journey is enhanced with a more meaningful ending. If Ronaldo wants to leave the club after his stint, he can, so long as he wants to leave Madrid. This reinforces the idea of a Real Madrid player being able to be in different roles.

In 10-a-side mode, you'll get to recreate your best game from the career mode.

UPCOMING FEATURES

Matchday: Watch carefully-timed cuts, then analyse these with instant replays to help you gain an advantage ahead of your next match.

Microwalk: Get a look at the heatmap and distinguish between attackers and defenders, marking and tackling.

Smart Cross: You'll be able to choose the right ball with the right trajectory to hit an oncoming defender's head.

5v5 Online Capture and Defend: Four players can be on the pitch at once, so your opponents will be keen to connect for a fast counter.
