. just one for android to download friend or foe? No. there is no single for all android. you need to download each one one by one because they are individually build. From your iPhone, you will be able to see your friends. You can also send messages, photos, and videos to friends. You will have the option to download the app from the App Store and install on your Android. Chunking There is a Chunking feature that is similar to Skype for Android, and you can call and send messages to your online friends. On your Android phone, you will have a dial pad with an optional PIN code that you can use to unlock it. If you were with someone else in an online chat room and they mention your phone number, they can call and talk with you as if you were on the phone. However, you won't be able to talk with them because you are on different phones. No problems getting my work done Your phone will be used for in between meetings so there is no need to worry if you lose your phone. You can get to your work from anywhere and you don't have to be at your desk. This is especially helpful if you need to get your kids to bed in the middle of the night and you don't want to mess with turning off your work settings. Saves time You don't need to go through all the trouble of downloading a Skype app for Android, accessing your friends' phone numbers, and trying to get your calls through the app. Just open your browser and go to From your browser, you will be able to see your friends, you can receive and send messages, and you will be able to call them. If you need to be able to call them, you will need to pay for their phone plan. If you aren't sure if they are a friend or foe, you can download an app that will let you know. You will be able to invite them to your groups and add them to your contacts. Your friends can add you to their groups if you would like to be friends or you can add them to your friends group. How to add friends on Friend or Foe To add friends on the app, you will need to pick friends on the website
