Torec Description: - XBMC/KODI support - easy to use and configure - very powerful: database for movies, tv-shows, wikipedia-entries - support various web service It seems to me you're in a bit of a rut with building a movie database... I could help you out with that... Hi Asen, thank you very much for your interest! I use the.csv format for the SQLite table, as most of the web services give a.csv format. I wrote an XML file parser, that parses the XML values for each movie, based on the.csv format (such as DATE, TITLE, GENRE, SIZE, YYYY, MM, DD, HH, MM...). The parser is very simple and I think it is capable to deal with most of the.csv format. You can get a XML version from the database, that you can put into JODConverter. You can find the XML file parser code here: I'm still trying to get well. I have just a little to show, here is a movie If you can help me, please email me at pp4rth+@gmail.com.
