I admire the looks of the Mustafarans, but not being able to dress up like they do, I feel a bit of an outcast from the culture. New Ewok's are coming in packs The New Ewok's are a completely new species of Ewok, with a unique look and design. The fur that they have is really well made, it feels real soft and silky and it takes a lot of effort to tear it. They have a larger head and bigger ears. They also are a little more wide in their body then the original Ewoks. I found out when I finally got a hold of them. They are very strong and do not move their hands easily. Their weapons are also more heavy compared to a lightsaber. They use a kind of whip made of a metal thing called Kunai that looks like rusted metal wire. The New Ewoks were all made in some kind of kunai factory, this is where all the children play to train their skills in kung fu. I tried fighting with them when I first got my hands on them. But my attempts of battle were futile. They felt a little too strong for me. I had a lot of trouble throwing the metal mounds that they constantly huddle around. Their fighting is very agile, they have the ability to go from and to the place they want very quickly, they also have the ability to dodge and to turn in a split second. They also have an ability to defend themselves with their bodies, if they are holding a weapon in one of their hands. They can rip off the weapon and throw it at me. There are 5 different types of New Ewok's
