O que deve ser feito sobre perguntas sem resposta? Existe alguma regra prática para esse caso? A: É muito gostoso que a pergunta e/ou a resposta fiquem na arquivada dos conteúdos criados e desconectados. Como eu respondo por outros sites, tenho a experiência de muita gente nunca usar o Stack Overflow em inglês e dizer o caminho a dar para recuperar a resposta a uma pergunta que, quando abriu, não tinha nenhuma resposta certa. Qualquer coisa que ficar muito tempo "no limbo" não é boa. Ele deixa a pessoa perdida no tempo e cria certa umidade sobre o SO em inglês, como se ele fosse uma "via de morte". Embora muitas vezes as pessoas não entendam a intenção da resposta a uma pergunta muito longe, acho que devemos até tentar ajudar lá. Sempre que eu faço isso, fico muito incomodado. Com uma resposta não é nada mais do que um centavo. Mas o objetivo aqui é tornar um site que exponha e que sirva (não é só atenção direta), mas entrei também por boas praias. STOCKS-TSX hits 10-year low, down 1.1 pct TORONTO, Sept 19 (Reuters) - The Toronto stock exchange's main index lost 1.1 percent on Tuesday to close at its lowest level since October 2008, as a global sell-off widened. Stocks and commodities hit their lowest levels since early 2008. Late in the trading day, the Toronto stock market was hit with three red candles, which most observers of stock prices considered a negative signal. The TSX's fall in midday trading was compounded by continuing worries about the global economy and declining oil prices. The TSX fell more than 1 percent on Monday for the fourth straight session, mirroring falls seen in Asia as investors braced for the possibility that the Federal Reserve may choose to keep interest rates low and ward off the threat of another recession. "
