Q: Where is the.iml file in the sdk directory? I am new to Android programming and want to learn Gradle. I went through the Android Developer Guide but where is the.iml file which holds the manifest information? I want to add a custom launcher activity to my app. The docs says how to do that. But I am unable to find the.iml file which is holding that information. I have been looking in C:\Users\xxx\AppData\Local\Android\Sdk folder. I tried to google but to no avail. Where is the.iml file? A: You can get the current IDE, like Intell] IDEA, to have the manifest file imported, simply right-click the project, and click 'Properties'. EcoTaxi EcoTaxi is an Australian green transport company that runs trips around Geelong, Victoria, Australia. It launched in October 2016 with transport for one to three people. A March 2016 study of Geelong's transport system found that a lack of reliable, affordable and convenient public transport options made it unfeasible for some people to live in Geelong. Funding EcoTaxi was founded by the Victorian Government as part of its transport proofing Program. It was founded with a grant from the Masterton Community Foundation and a grant from the Australian Government's Rural Transit Assistance Program.
