Atletico Madrid could be without Romelu Lukaku, Thiago Mendes and David De Gea in the first three games of the new La Liga season Atletico Madrid are set to be without Romelu Lukaku, Thiago Mendes and David De Gea in the first three games of the new La Liga season, the Spanish club's head coach Diego Simeone has revealed. The Belgium striker, who scored 14 times for Atleti in the last campaign, missed the draw with Barcelona on Saturday with a hip complaint but should be fit for Wednesday's match against Sevilla. "We should be without Lukaku, [Achraf] Benkalo and Thiago Mendes," Simeone told Cadena COPE. "Lukaku has a hip injury and it's not serious. He will be out for a few days. He will not play against Sevilla. "Thiago Mendes is progressing well. He has a tear in a muscle on the inside of his foot. We hope that he can return ahead of the Sevilla game. "Finally, De Gea's situation is [concerning]. We hope that the issue will resolve and that he will be available for Sevilla. He is certainly not fit enough to play against Barcelona." Fellow centre-back Mendes has been linked with Paris Saint-Germain and Atletico had not given him permission to speak to the French club. The goalkeeping situation is also causing concern, with De Gea's recovery from a broken right hand suffered two months ago apparently not going according to plan. On Saturday, Atleti agreed a deal to sell a transfer option to Barcelona for the Portugal goalkeeper, but the club has not received a formal offer and he is now uncertain 595f342e71
