Packed.. create a folder if that's something you would like to do. .I just have to say, none of the comments on my Fat Butt Fat Girl Facebook page, were anywhere near as negative, as when this article was posted on Reddit. Please note, I have a very large butt, and a good job working at a college:) But honestly, when people tell me to "Sit down on the potty" I can't help but feel they have a big pair of platypus' on their heads. Just something that bugged me. I think you've hit the nail right on the head, it's not only the teenager that feels that way, women too. I say it like I need to mention it, but it's the truth. I was once told "You should sit on the potty before you do your #2" and I got mad at myself for laughing and saying "Ok, how would that make you feel?" And my reply was "I don't want you to feel like I do!" People don't expect someone with a big butt to sit on the potty or in a proper toilet, you know? And when they find out that not only do I have a big butt, but I work hard and am very active in college, I get told it over and over. People don't understand that in this day in age, most people are very ignorant and closed off about the topics of sex and how to maintain a healthy body. And yeah, I'm sure some people just get sick of the "I get all of this attention," and wish they wouldn't, but the majority of people really are just kind and they don't mean to be rude or anything, sometimes even when it's "YOUR" butt. I myself am very understanding and picky about who gets to see my rear end, but unfortunately that's not the world most people live in. So they usually just cover up with a t-shirt and pants, and I'm forced to take the heat because I didn't pick the pants I was wearing. The bottom line is nobody wants to pay attention to your rear end. I just had to rant for a minute. I definitely agree with what you said, and really have nothing but respect for your opinions and facts. You've given me a perspective on life that I didn't realize I
